

The Adventures of Everyday Geniuses

What are you interested in? Sports, weather, or maybe animals? Katie's little sister loves to learn about cooking. She even insisted that her family change her name to Eduardo after she finished watching the Cooking with Eduardo show with her Grandma. Try one of her new recipes for a fun treat! Be sure to ask for your parent's permission.

Do you like cooking as much as Katie's little sister? If so, you can find more kid-friendly recipes on our website at www.MainstreamConnections.org

From Eduardo's Kitchen:

Chocolate Turnover

Ingredients:

Peanut Butter

Chocolate Chips

Fudge or any kind of Candy Bars

Preparation:

Put chips and peanut butter in a bowl and mix together. Cut up or break little candy bars into small pieces and add to mixture. Form into little balls. Lay out on cookie sheets covered with wax paper. Place in freezer until the candy sticks together. Remove from freezer and they're ready to eat.
