

The Adventures of Everyday Geniuses

Katie was shocked to learn that her father had trouble with reading and spelling, just like her classmate Mark Twingle. After investigating, Katie discovers that many of the greatest scientists, doctors, and inventors struggled with these same problems. She can't wait to tell Mark Twingle how great his mind is, and that he too can accomplish incredible things one day. Can you help Katie find Mark Twingle?

